

Symposium

Books: A Noble Past with a Future (?)

William H. Wisner

Reference and Interlibrary Loan Librarian
Laredo Community College, Laredo, TX USA

“The End of Books - The End of Reading: A Personal View”

Thursday, October 28, 2010, 7:30-8:30pm
Crabtree Auditorium (Room M14)

Peter McNally

McGill School of Information Studies
McGill University, Montreal, Quebec

“The Printed Book: Its Social and Cultural Impact”

Friday, October 29, 11:30-12:30pm
Library Auditorium (R.P. Bell Library 3rd Floor)

Rowland Lorimer

Canadian Centre for Studies in Publishing
Simon Fraser University at Harbour Centre
Vancouver, British Columbia

“Ultra Libris (Beyond the Book): Trajectories of Change in Foundations of Knowledge”

Friday, October 29, 2010, 3:30-4:30pm
Library Auditorium (R.P. Bell Library 3rd Floor)

Panel Discussion I

Books, Book Publishing & Selling

October 29: 9:45am

Library Auditorium (R.P. Bell Library 3rd Floor)

Ellen Pickle - Tidewater Books
Thaddeus Holownia - Anchorage Press
Susanne Alexander - Goose Lane Editions

Panel Discussion II

Books - Past, Present and Future

October 29: 2:00pm

Library Auditorium (R.P. Bell Library 3rd Floor)

Janine Rogers – Medieval Manuscripts and Modern Minds
Elizabeth Millar - Special Collections
Bill Wisner - Future of Books

This symposium is free but an RSVP by October 25 would be appreciated: Brian McNally (bmcnally@mta.ca)

A Mount Allison University Libraries and Archives
Sponsored Event

Celebrating the 40th Anniversary of the Opening of the R.P. Bell Library