

BOOK LAUNCH

Three Centuries of Public Art: Historic Halifax Regional Municipality

by
Barbara DeLory

- The history of the region as told through its public art & memorials
- 114 monuments, cenotaphs, sculptures & statuary from North Preston to the east, Halifax, Dartmouth, Bedford, suburbs, and the south-west coves, incl. Peggy's Cove
- 280 full colour photographs (216 pages)
- Detailed histories with quotes and poems
- Nine maps/directions to each object d'art
- Six "walking tours" of the historic downtown regions ... with maps
- Point Pleasant Park, Public Gardens, historic waterfront and street walks ... suburban and coastal drives ...
- Five Tragedies: RMS Titanic, SS Atlantic, HMS Tribune, the Halifax Explosion and SwissAir Flight 111
- Tribute to the Royal Canadian Navy
- Tributes to the military tradition of the region through a wide range of community-based memorials and major cenotaphs:
 - War of 1812-14
 - Crimean War (1853 - 1856)
 - Boer War (1899 - 1902)
 - World War I (1914 - 1918),
 - World War II (1939 - 1945)
 - Korean War (1950 - 1953)
 - ... and modern conflicts
- The razing of Africville and ... its rebirth
- Immigrant faces and nation builders
- For coffee tables and office desks ... a gift to cherish

WHEN: November 9th; 7-9 PM

WHERE: Nova Scotia Archives

6016 University Ave., Halifax, N.S.

- Light Refreshments • Book special
- 902-576-2055 (pub) or 422-2114 (author)

New World Publishing

www.newworldpublishing.com e-mail: nwp1@eastlink.ca

Local phone: 576-2055

ISBN 9781895814354 -- $35.00 (216 pp.)