UNIVERSITY LIBRARIAN

MacEwan University invites applications for the position of University Librarian. Located in the vibrant city of Edmonton, MacEwan University is a comprehensive post-secondary undergraduate institution deeply committed to a teaching mission enriched by research.

With a reputation for excellence, MacEwan University comprises four Faculties and Schools, over 60 programs, and more than 19,000 full- and part-time students. For more information about MacEwan University, please visit www.MacEwan.ca.

Reporting to the Provost and Executive Vice-President Academic, the University Librarian provides innovative and energetic vision, leadership and direction to the Library as a centre for learning, teaching and scholarship. The challenge of growth and change will require great vision and collaboration with diverse groups both internally and externally.

The successful candidate will possess an accredited graduate degree in library or information sciences as well as a track record of achievement in senior academic library administration. She/he will demonstrate a proven commitment to outstanding service and a vision for the academic library in the 21st century. She/he will also possess the requisite interpersonal and collaborative skills to develop the internal and external relations necessary to build the Library to its maximum potential.

This is an exciting and challenging opportunity to play a leadership role in one of Canada's newest universities. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority.
