

Information Management Public Lecture Series

Fall 2012

Thursday, 27 September 2012, 5:30 pm - Room 1020, Rowe Management Building

Serendipity Models: How We Encounter Information and People in Digital Environments
Dr. Anabel Quan-Haase, Faculty of Information and Media Studies, Western University

Friday, 19 October 2012, 10:30 am - Room 1009, Rowe Management Building

The Leak Heard Round the World? Cablegate, Wikileaks, and the Evolving Global Mediascape
Dr. Lisa Lynch, Department of Journalism, Concordia University

Tuesday, 6 November 2012, 1:30 pm - Room 3089, Rowe Management Building

The Ghosts of Info-Wars Past: Lessons for the Law and Politics of Internet Censorship
Resistance Today
Prof. Jon Penney, Schulich School of Law, Dalhousie University (and doctoral candidate, Oxford Internet Institute, Oxford University)

Wednesday, 21 November 2012, 7:30 pm – Potter Auditorium, Rowe Management Building

The Natural History of a Sustainable Institution: The Nova Scotian Institute of (Natural) Science
Since 1862*
Dr. Suzanne Zeller, Department of History, Wilfrid Laurier University

*Co-sponsored by the School of Information Management, the Royal Nova Scotia Historical Society, the Nova Scotian Institute of Science, the Atlantic Node of the Situating Science Cluster, and the University of King's College History of Science and Technology Programme

Presented by Dalhousie University's School of Information Management