

POSTED JANUARY 11, 2013

UNIVERSITY OF PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND
ROBERTSON LIBRARY
LIBRARIAN
PART-TIME TERM POSITION
COMPETITION #02A13

The University of Prince Edward Island invites applications for a part-time Term Librarian, for approximately 20.5 hours per week. The term is available immediately through to May 31, 2013, with the possibility of extension.

The University of PEI is one of Canada's leading liberal undergraduate institutions. Located in Charlottetown, it is a central educational, cultural and social institution in the City and the Province. The University has a population of 4,000 part-time and full-time students and offers traditional programs as well as many unique areas of study. We have a strong research record in a number of areas.

Reporting to the University Librarian, your primary responsibilities will be providing in-person and virtual reference service in all disciplines and providing information literacy instruction via classes, consultations, and guides and tutorials. There may also be opportunities for providing other professional services, as well as participation in special projects.

Applicants will have a degree from an ALA-accredited institution or equivalent accreditation in library and information science. The successful candidate should possess excellent interpersonal communication skills, and have recent experience in providing reference services in an academic library setting.

This is a term appointment with academic status. The position is part of the UPEI Faculty Association Bargaining Unit #1, and will be filled at the Librarian I Level, with salary pro-rated. Term: Immediately – May 31, 2013, with possibility of extension.

Applications should include curriculum vitae, names of three or more referees and a covering letter providing an overview and discussion of qualifications and interests as they relate to this position. Inquiries and applications should be directed to:
