

Paths in Partnership, towards honoring Reconciliation

A workshop about
Indigenous Peoples in Relationships with Libraries, Archives and Museums

Monday October 30, 2017

9:30am – 4:00pm

Pictou Landing First Nation's new Fire Hall, 6598 Pictou Landing Road, Pictou Landing First Nation, Nova Scotia

Tangible and intangible forms of indigenous knowledges and cultural expressions are often found in libraries, archives or museums. Learning together, as cultural memory institutions to advocate for, inspire and collaborate with Indigenous individuals and communities to reach their full potential by facilitating increased access to Indigenous knowledge through resources, training, and by developing and sustaining those knowledges.

Workshop participants will begin to understand how to respect and preserve these ways of Indigenous knowing to share the knowledges with the next generation.

Keynote address by Camille Callison, mother, librarian, archivist, culture activist Tahltan Nation

Knowledge walk, with Pictou Landing First Nation Elders, and Gerald Gloade, father, artist, educator, culture activist Mi'kmaw First Nation

Presentation on the Mi'kmawey Debert Cultural Centre, CECP project with Pictou Landing First Nation with Trevor Gould, father, historian, educator, culture activist Mi'kmaw First Nation

To register,

Please contact:

Trecia Schell, Community Services Librarian, Pictou-Antigonish Regional Library,

Email: tschell@nsgnp.library.ns.ca,

Phone: (902) 755-6031, or toll-free 1(866)779-7761

Registration is required, as space is limited. With many thanks to our community partners, the workshop is free of charge, and lunch is provided. When registering, please indicate any dietary restrictions you may have.