

APLA is committed to the process of reconciliation with First Nations and Urban Indigenous communities. We acknowledge that our work takes place on the unceded territories of the Nations comprised of the Mi'kmaq, Wəlastəkwiyyik (Maliseet), Innu, Inuit and Métis peoples. We believe that libraries are a place to learn, share and heal.

APLA is asking for input from our membership. We are in the process of developing a section of our website that highlights resource sharing and information about Indigenous services and libraries.

How has your library or you as a librarian or library staff member acted in response to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission's Calls to Action and/or the CFLA-FCAB Truth & Reconciliation Committee Recommendations?

Initiatives could be in the following areas:

- programming;
- collecting appropriate and relevant materials;
- hiring of Indigenous peoples;
- cataloguing schemes;
- staff training;
- technology infrastructure;
- outreach and partnership building;
- policy development;
- space and design;
- funding for all the above

Please describe and send your initiatives to trc@apla.ca

We will be sharing initiatives to the membership and the public on the APLA website.

Thank you,

Patricia Doucette
APLA President
