

2019 Saskatchewan Libraries Conference

Libraries Transform!

The theme for the Saskatchewan Libraries 2019 conference is Libraries Transform!, which represents the transformative influence of libraries. As resources for lifelong learning, libraries transform lives, empower people and strengthen communities through diverse educational, cultural and leisure experiences.

Pre-Conference Workshop

May 1, 2019, 9 AM – 3 PM

Saskatchewan Polytechnic Saskatoon, Main Campus

1130 Idylwyld Drive North

RM 312

Saskatoon, SK

The SLA pre-conference Service Design Thinking Workshop is open for registration! Led by Future 40 Winner Stephanie Yong, this full-day offering will introduce participants to service design thinking in libraries. From framing the opportunity for change, to refining ideas based on feedback and impact measurements, this workshop will help you to anticipate unmet service needs by placing people at the heart of your service planning. Participants will leave the workshop with an innovative, evidence-based approach to enhancing services while proving their library's value.

Date: May 1, 9 AM - 3 PM

Location: Saskatchewan Polytechnic, Saskatoon Main Campus, RM 312

Cost: $50 per person (includes lunch)

Registration: <https://saskla.wufoo.com/forms/z1lbjsxx0nlbtgj/>

Please note that this workshop has a limited capacity of 50 seats. Conference registration is not required in order to register for the workshop.
