The National Indigenous Knowledge and Language Alliance is moving forward, building on the shoulders of many heroes. NIKLA/ANCLA is looking for active involvement from committed individuals to join us for the planning meeting. The history and what's happened until now will be discussed. A proposed association model with Indigenous and co-conspirator (allies) circles and a working board comprised of members from each circle will be presented. Additionally, we will discuss next steps and how to move forward respectfully.
