

SIM RESEARCH DAY

Thursday, April 7th, 2022 - 11:00am-12:45pm

Microsoft Teams

SCHEDULE

11:00am	Welcome/intro: Dr. Sandra Toze (SIM Director) Opening remarks/welcome: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dr. Kim Brooks (Dean, Faculty of Management) • Dr. Dominika Wranik (Associate Dean-Research, Faculty of Management)
11:10am	Introduction to lightening talks + Q&A <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • MC, Janet Music (MI Program Coordinator, SIM)
11:15am	Lightning talks + Q&A Each presentation will be 3 minutes + 2 minutes for questions (2 questions each) Presenters <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Claire Dionne and Katherine van der Linden (MLIS alumni/professional): Library Lexique and barriers to providing French-language library services • Jordan Audas (MI): The price of glass slippers: Folklore, intellectual property, and neoliberalism • Juan Chaves Baquero, Sandra Cascadden, Vinson Li, Lachlan MacLeod, and Evan Thomas (MI/MDI): Housing affordability and availability in NS • Pallavi Gone (MI alumni/PhD student): Natural Language Processing to Understand Human Activities and Perceptions on Hydro Energy Projects • Maddie Hare (MI): The Impact of Mentorship on the Research Performance of LIS PhDs • Charlie Hook (MI): Repatriation of Indigenous Human Remains in Canada: An Analysis of the Issue and Relevant Policies • Kydra Mayhew (MI): Getting the whole story: On the coverage of historical journals in Web of Science and Scopus • Steven Matthews (MIM): Can a gamified knowledge management process improve software engineering documentation? • Poppy Riddle (MI): Comparing search terms for overlap and exclusions: a visual analysis • Vizareth Syed (MI): User experience for augmented/mixed reality • Stacey Taylor (PhD Computer Science): Data-centric decision-making in finance and accounting • Francis Toole (MI): Beyond the Barriers: Health Information Seeking Behavior of Transgender Identifying People and the Resources and Care that is Available in Nova Scotia, Canada • Siobhan Wiggans (MI): Canadian libraries and the opioid crisis: Before and during COVID-19
12:45pm (approx.)	Closing remarks (Dr. Sandra Toze, SIM Director)